HISTORY

GENERAL EDUCATION GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

PREFATORY STATEMENT

History is the memory of human experience. As a part of the general education curriculum, history helps students identify and assess the significant institutions, events, trends, and individuals that have shaped the experience. Students who have completed general education history courses, and thereby analyzed the chronological, geographical, and cultural contexts within which human events take place, develop a sense of time and place by which they can interpret their own lives more clearly.

Goal I

Students will demonstrate an understanding of the working methods historians use.

Objectives: All students will
